An Act for the regulation of public Sarais and Puraos.

Preamble.—WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the regulation of public Sarais and Puraos: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

2. Interpretation clause.—In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Sarai" means any building used for the shelter and accommodation of travellers, and includes, in any case in which only part of a building is used as a sarai, the part so used of such building. It also includes a purao so far as the provisions of this Act are applicable thereto:

"Keeper of a sarai".—"Keeper of a sarai" includes the owner and any person having or acting in the care or management thereof:

"Magistrate of the District".—"Magistrate of the District" means the chief officer charged with the executive administration of a district in criminal matters whatever may be his designation.

3. Notice of this Act to be given to keepers of sarais.—Within six months after this Act shall come into operation, the Magistrate of the District in which any sarai to which this Act shall apply may be situated shall, and from time to time thereafter such Magistrate may, give to the keeper of every such sarai notice in writing of this Act, by leaving such notice for the keeper at the sarai; and shall by such notice require the keeper to register the sarai as by this Act provided.

Such notice may be in the form in the Schedule to this Act annexed or to the like effect.

4. Registers of sarais to be kept.—The Magistrate of the District shall keep a register in which shall be entered by such Magistrate or such other person as he shall appoint in this behalf, the names and residences of the keepers of all sarais within his jurisdiction, and the situation of every such sarai.

No charge shall be made for making any such entry.

5. Lodgers, etc., not to be received in sarais until registered.—After one month after the giving of such notice to register as by this Act provided, the keeper of any sarai or any other person shall not receive any lodger or allow any person, cattle, sheep, elephant, camel or other animal, or any vehicle, to halt or be placed in such sarai until the same and the name and residence of the keeper thereof shall have been registered as by this Act provided.

6. Magistrate may refuse to register keeper not producing certificate of character.—The Magistrate of the District may, if he shall think fit, refuse to register as the keeper of a sarai a person who does not produce a certificate of character in such form and signed by such person as the State Government shall from time to time direct.

7. Duties of keepers of sarais.—The keeper of a sarai shall be bound—

- (1) when any person in such sarai is ill of any infectious or contagious disease, or dies of such disease, to give immediate notice thereof to the nearest police station;
- (2) at all times when required by any Magistrate or any other person duly authorized by the Magistrate of the District in this behalf, to give him free access to the sarai and allow him to inspect the same or any part thereof;
- (3) to thoroughly cleanse the rooms and verandahs, and drains of the sarai, and the wells, tanks, or other sources from which water is obtained for the persons or animals using it, to the satisfaction of, and so often as shall be required by, the Magistrate of the District, or such person as he shall appoint in this behalf;

- (5) to keep the gates, walls, fences, roofs and drains of the sarai in repair;
- (6) to provide such number of watchmen as may, in the opinion of the Magistrate of the District, subject to such rules as the Chief Commissioner may prescribe in this behalf, be necessary for the safety and protection of persons and animals or vehicles lodging in, halting at or placed in the sarai; and
- (7) to exhibit a list of charges for the use of the sarai at such place and in such form and languages as the Magistrate of the District shall from time to time direct.

8. Power to order reports from keepers of sarais.—The keeper of a sarai shall from time to time, if required so to do by an order of the Magistrate of the District served upon him, report, either orally or in writing as may be directed by the Magistrate to such Magistrate or to such person as the Magistrate shall appoint, every person who resorted to such sarai during the preceding day or night.

If written reports are required for any space of time exceeding a single day or night, schedules shall be furnished by the Magistrate of the District to the keeper.

The keeper shall from time to time fill up the said schedules with the information so required, and transmit them to the said Magistrate, in such manner and at such intervals as may from time to time be ordered by him.

9. Power to shut up, secure, clear and clean deserted sarais.—If any sarai by reason of abandonment or of disputed ownership shall remain untenanted, and thereby become a resort of idle and disorderly persons, or become in a filthy or unwholesome state, or be complained of by any two or more of the neighbours as a nuisance, the Magistrate of the District, after due enquiry, may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner or to the person claiming to be the owner, if he be known and resident within the district, and may also cause such notice to be put on some conspicuous part of the sarai, requiring the persons concerned therein, whoever they may be, to secure, enclose, clean or clear the same;

and if such requisition shall not be complied with within eight days, the Magistrate of the District may cause the necessary work to be executed, and all expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the owner of the sarai, and shall be recoverable like penalties under this Act, or, in case of abandonment or disputed ownership of the sarai, by the sale of any material found therein.

10. Taking down or repairing ruinous sarais.—If a sarai or any part thereof be deemed by the Magistrate of the District to be in a ruinous state, or likely to fall, or in any way dangerous to the persons or animals lodging in or halting at the sarai, he shall give notice in writing to the keeper of the sarai requiring him forthwith to take down, repair or secure (as the case may be) the sarai or such part thereof as the case may require.

If the keeper do not begin to take down, repair or secure the sarai, or such part as aforesaid within three days after such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Magistrate shall cause all or so much of the sarai as he shall think necessary to be taken down, repaired or otherwise secured.

All the expenses so incurred by the Magistrate shall be paid by the keeper of the sarai, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter mentioned.

11. Sale of materials of ruinous sarais.—If any such sarai or any part thereof be taken down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Magistrate of the District may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be taken down under the provisions of the last preceding section, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall restore the over-plus (if any) arising from such sale to the owner of such sarai on demand, and may recover the deficiency (if any) as if the amount thereof were a penalty under this Act.

12. Penalty for permitting sarais to be filthy or overgrown.—Whoever, being the keeper of any sarai, suffers the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with vegetation, or after the expiration of two days from the time of his receiving notice in writing from the Magistrate of the District to cleanse or clear the same, or after he shall have been convicted of suffering the same to be in such a state or so overgrown as aforesaid, shall allow the same to continue in such state, or so overgrown, shall be liable to the penalties provided in section 14 of this Act:

Proviso.—Provided that the Magistrate of the District may, in lieu of enforcing such daily penalty, enter on and cleanse or clear the said sarai, and the expense incurred by the Magistrate in respect thereof shall be paid to him by the keeper, and shall be recoverable as by this Act provided in the case of penalties.

13. Power for Chief Commissioner to make regulations.—The Chief Commissioner may from time to time make regulations for the better attainment of the objects of this Act, provided that such rules be not inconsistent with this Act or with any other law for the time being in force, and may from time to time repeal, alter and add to the same.

All regulations made under this Act and all repeals thereof, and alterations and additions thereto, shall be published in the Official Gazette.

14. Penalty for infringing Act or regulations.—If the keeper of a sarai offend against any of the provisions of this Act or any of the regulations made in pursuance of this Act, he shall for every such offence be liable on conviction before any Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding twenty rupees, and to a further penalty not exceeding one rupee a day for every day during which the offence continues:

Provided always that this Act shall not exempt any person from any penalty or other liability to which he may be subject, irrespective of this Act.

All penalties imposed under this Act may be recovered in the same manner as fines may be recovered under the laws in force in Manipur relating to the recovery of fines.

15. Conviction for third offence to disqualify persons from keeping sarais.—Where a keeper of a sarai is convicted of a third offence under this Act, he shall not afterwards act as keeper of a sarai without the license in writing of the Magistrate of the District, who may either withhold such license or grant the same on such terms and conditions as he may think fit.

16. Nothing in Act to apply to certain sarais.—No part of this Act, except section 8, shall apply to any sarai which may be under the direct management of the Chief Commissioner or of any Municipal Committee.

Narsingh, Chief Personnel Officer, M/s. Tata Iron & Steel Co. Ltd., P.O. Jealgora, Dist. Manbhum—*For the Opposite Party.AWARD

This is an application under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

2. The applicant alleges that she was discharged from service from 1st January 1953 without the express permission of the Tribunal in writing in spite of pendency of Reference No. 6 of 1952 and hence she has filed the present application. The case of the opposite party is that the applicant was made to retire from service from 1st January 1953, as she had attained the age of 60 years, which is the age of superannuation under their Retiring Gratuity Rules. It was alleged that the applicant had been got examined by the Colliery Medical Officer, who certified that the applicant was above sixty years of age and she was therefore served with a notice and superannuated from 1st January 1953.

3. It is an admitted fact that the applicant's services were terminated from 1st January 1953 at a time when Reference No. 6 of 1952 to which the opposite party and their workmen are parties was pending before the Tribunal. The opposite party's case is that they had not in any way altered the conditions of service applicable to the applicant, because under the terms of service, a person, on attaining the age of sixty years, would be superannuated and must retire. For this, reliance has been placed on the retiring Gratuity Rules of the company, which has been produced at Exhibit 16. These rules were framed in 1937. It appears that these rules were made in the first instance for the main factory of the Tata Iron and Steel Co. Ltd., at Jamshedpur. Mr. Engineer, Exhibit 21, who is Deputy Superintendent of Collieries of the company, has stated that the scheme of Retiring Gratuity was introduced in the collieries about 10 years ago. He could not remember the exact year but that it was after 1937. Now so far as the applicant is concerned, it is an admitted fact that she has been in service of the company from 1933. In other words, when she entered service, the Gratuity Rules were not in force. Mr. Engineer has admitted that excepting for a rule contained in the Gratuity Rules, there is no rule that a workman must retire on attaining the age of 60 years. He has also admitted that for people who joined service before 1937, there was no rule or agreement about their retiring at a particular age and the practice was that persons continued to work till they were found physically unfit. In other words, at the time when the applicant joined Service in 1933, there was no condition of service that she would have to retire when she completed the age of 60 years. On the contrary, the rule was that she may continue in service as long as she was physically fit to work.

4. It is true that retiring gratuity rules contain a rule (Rule 5) which lays down that every uncovenanted employee of the company must retire from service on attaining the age of sixty years (unless his service is extended as mentioned therein). In my opinion, this rule cannot affect a person who had already joined the service of the company before the rules were framed or introduced. By framing a set of rules, an employer could not change or prejudice the terms of service of an employee who was already in service before that date. The employee in service should ordinarily be given the option to elect whether he should accept the new rules or not. There is nothing on record to show that when the gratuity scheme was introduced, the workmen were even informed about it, much less given an option to elect the rules or not. Mr. Engineer stated that he was not sure whether a notice was put up on the notice board about the introduction of the gratuity scheme. It may also be noted that though the rules were framed in 1937 and were applied to the collieries in about 1943 or thereabouts, the rule about the superannuation was not enforced till 1952. In that year, the management started issuing notices to the employees asking them whether they accepted the ages mentioned in their service card as correct. This would also show that till 1952 the old workmen may not be aware of the company having framed a rule that all the employees must retire on attaining the age of 60 years. It may lastly be noted that even under the above Rules, no employee was or is entitled as a right to any payment of gratuity. In other words, though the company had framed rules for gratuity, the rules are such as could not be enforced by an employee so as to claim gratuity on retirement.

5. It was argued that in about 1949, the management were thinking of dropping the gratuity scheme in the case of employees getting a salary of Rs. 300 per month or less and thereupon the General Secretary of the Tata Workers' Union raised a protest and ultimately the management dropped the idea of withdrawing the scheme. From this, it was urged that it must be presumed that the workmen knew about the gratuity scheme. I am unable to agree with this contention. The above facts would only show that the Union leaders knew that there was a gratuity scheme. It did not necessarily mean that the workmen knew about it. At best, it might be said that the members of the Tata Workers Union may have been knowing about this scheme; but there is nothing to show that the applicant was a member of that union or that she knew about it. I might repeat that she was in employment from 1933 and could not be bound by any new rules framed, unless she was informed about it and she elected to be governed by the new rules. Here not only did she not elect to be governed by gratuity scheme, but she did not even know about it.

6. As I said above, Mr. Engineer has admitted that excepting for the above rule in the gratuity rules, there is no rule that a workman must retire on attaining the age of 60 years. The applicant was not bound by the above rule and she cannot therefore be forced to retire on attaining the age of 60 years. As admitted by Mr. Engineer, workmen who joined service before 1937 continued to work till they were found physically unfit and hence so far as the applicant is concerned, she cannot be made to retire as long as she is physically fit. Admittedly she is physically fit. Even the certificate given by the colliery Medical Officer shows that she is physically fit. That being so, the order of the management forcing her to retire from 1st January 1953 on the ground that she had attained the age of 60 years was bad and must be set aside.

7. I may mention here that the applicant contended that she was not 60 years of age and she was only 43. In this connection, she relied on a medical certificate granted by the Assistant Civil Surgeon, Dhanbad, who certified that she was about 50 years old. On the other hand, the colliery Medical Officer certified that she was about 60 years of age when she was examined on 6th August 1952. She complained that she had not been properly examined and later on she produced the above certificate and thereupon the management got her examined by a Medical Board consisting of three of their medical officers and this Medical Board also found that she was above sixty. Ordinarily, the Tribunal would not interfere in a decision of the management when they had evidence before them to show that the age of a person was sixty years, unless it was shown that their action was not bona fide. When there is a conflict of medical evidence, it is for the management to decide which evidence they should accept. In the present case there is nothing to show that the management were guided by improper motives or that their above decision was not bona fide. There are however one or two irregularities. The first is about the constitution of the Medical Board. One of the members of the Medical Board was a subordinate of the doctor who had already given a certificate that the applicant was sixty years of age. It further appears that not only the applicant's case but two other cases were referred at the same time to the same Medical Board and one Medical Officer who had already given a particular opinion about one of these other persons was also a member of the Medical Board; though it was because that person was aggrieved by that Medical Officer's opinion that the matter was referred to the Medical Board. It amounted to the trial judge being one of the members of the Appellate Bench hearing appeal against his own decision. It then appears that as against the company's medical officer's opinion, the applicant had produced the opinion of the Assistant Civil Surgeon; and in fairness to the applicant, the certificate of the Assistant Civil Surgeon should also have been sent to the Medical Board, who should also have been asked to give reasons for their opinion. In the Provident Fund card of the applicant, her age was shown to be about 40 years. In other words, the inquiry made about the age of the applicant does not appear to have been made carefully. I do not go further in this question because as held above by me, even if the applicant was sixty years of age, she could not be made to retire, so long as she was physically fit.

8. In the result, the order of the opposite party making the applicant to retire from 1st January 1953 is set aside and she is ordered to be reinstated in service from 1st January 1953. She is also entitled to wages, bonus, and other advantages which she would have got if she had continued in service. The back wages should be calculated on the average of her earnings during the previous two months i.e. November and December 1952. The back wages etc. should be paid to her within one month from the award becoming enforceable.

R. Panda, General Secretary, Colliery Mazdoor Sangh, Kumarbazar Jubak Samity, Raniganj.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL AT DHANBAD

APPLICATION NO. 43 OF 1952

(Arising out of Reference No. 6 of 1952)

In the matter of an application U/S 33A of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

PRESENT:

Shri L. P. Dave, B.A., LL.B.,—Chairman.

PARTIES:

Shri G. R. Panda, General Secretary, Colliery Mazdoor Sangh, Kumarbazar Jubak Samity, P.O. Raniganj (District Burdwan), West Bengal—Complainant.

Versus

The management of Mundulpore Colliery, Mundulpore Coal Co. Ltd., 8, Royal Exchange Place, Calcutta-1—Opposite Party.

APPEARANCES:

Shri K. L. Paul, Pleader, Dhanbad—For the Complainant.

AWARD

This is an application purporting to be one under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

2. The application was filed by one Mr. G. R. Panda who described himself as the General Secretary, Colliery Mazdoor Sangh, Kumarbazar Jubak Samity. He filed the present application stating that during the pendency of the dispute regarding Republic Day and Independence Day holidays, the management of the Mundulpore Colliery had illegally and unjustifiably declared a lock-out and dismissed about 2,500 workmen.

3. The opposite party raised two preliminary objections. Firstly, it contended that no dispute or proceeding between the management and its workmen was pending on 10th June 1952 because the reference regarding paid holidays was disposed of by the Labour Appellate Tribunal on 4th April 1952. Secondly, it contended that the application was not maintainable in law, as it was not made by a workman, aggrieved by the action of the management.

4. It may be noted that a reference about paid holidays was first made by the Government to this Tribunal on 12th April 1951. My learned predecessor decided it on 3rd August 1951. The matter went in appeal, and the appeal was decided on 4th April 1952. Thereafter, however, the Government made a fresh reference to this Tribunal on 5th May 1952 and the same was registered in this Tribunal as Reference No. 6 of 1952. This reference was pending on 10th June 1952 and if any action was taken by the management on that day, it certainly would amount to contravention of Section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and would entitle an employee aggrieved by such contravention to make a complaint in writing about it under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. The first objection therefore cannot be accepted.

5. The second objection against this application is that it is not made by or on behalf of an employee aggrieved by the contravention of Section 33 by the management. It has been alleged that the management dismissed about 2,500 workmen on 10th June 1952. If that was so, it would have been open to these workmen, or any of them, to make a complaint under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. No such complaint has been made by any of the workmen. Mr. Panda who filed the present application, does not appear to have been authorised by any workman or workmen to file the present application on his or their behalf. A trade union or a person other than the aggrieved workmen would not be entitled to make a complaint under Section 33A. Mr. Paul who appeared for the applicant fairly conceded this.

6. The result is that the application as framed is not maintainable and must be dismissed. I pass my award accordingly.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL AT DHANBAD

Shri L. N. Singh, c/o Kalyani Selected Kargali Colliery, P.O. Bermo, Dist. Hazaribagh—For the Opposite Party.

AWARD

This is an application under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

2. This complaint was filed by Shri Mithilesh Kumar Sinha, General Secretary of the Chotanagpur Coalfield Workers Union, representing Purusottam M. Parmar who was an employee of the opposite party. He alleged that the opposite party illegally and wrongfully removed Shri Parmar, who was Underground and Surface in Charge from 28th March 1953, without the permission of this Tribunal during the pendency of Reference No. 6 of 1952 relating to paid holidays.

3. The opposite party contended that Parmar was not a workman; that the opposite party had not illegally removed him from service; that Parmar was employed temporarily and as his services were no longer required because the quarry was being closed, he was discharged; and that he had also committed certain bad acts and was guilty of dishonesty. It was therefore prayed that the application should be dismissed.

4. At the hearing before me, Mr. M. K. Sinha was not present but Mr. Parmar was present in person. Admittedly he was appointed by the opposite party as a temporary quarry and underground in charge. Mr. Parmar admitted before me that his duties as a quarry and Underground in Charge were purely supervisory. He had not to do any clerical or manual work and could not therefore be said to be a workman within the definition given under the Industrial Disputes Act. That being so, the present application would not lie.

5. The second objection against the maintainability of this application is that Mr. Parmar was appointed only temporarily. The order of appointment dated 9th January 1953 clearly shows that he was appointed as temporary quarry and Underground in Charge. Below this appointment letter, he has made an endorsement that he accepted the temporary appointment as quarry and Underground in Charge. He was discharged on 28th March 1953, that is within three months of his appointment. A person who was appointed on a purely temporary basis could be discharged by the employer without notice or without giving any reasons. In their notice of discharge, the management stated that they had not found his work satisfactory and also that they were going to close the overburden work in quarry No. 1 and for both these reasons, he was discharged. The allegation that the quarry was being closed has not been denied on behalf of the applicant. In the circumstances, the opposite party was entitled, when they were closing their quarry, to discharge a person whom they engaged temporarily.

6. It was contended on behalf of the opposite party that the present application was not maintainable as it was not filed by the aggrieved workman but was filed by the Secretary of the Chotanagpur Coalfield Workers Union, whereas an application under Section 33A of the Act ought to be made by the aggrieved employee himself. It is true that an application under Section 33A must be made by the aggrieved workman and that it cannot be made by anyone else. In the present case, the complaint is made by Mr. Sinha. He has stated therein that he was making it as representing Mr. Parmar. He had also filed a letter of authority signed by Mr. Parmar authorising Mr. Sinha to make the application and to do all other acts in connection with this application. I think that in substance, it is an application which can be taken to have been made by or on behalf of Mr. Parmar, and I would not dismiss it on this technical ground. It cannot however be granted, firstly because Mr. Parmar was not a workman as defined in the Industrial Disputes Act, and secondly because he was engaged temporarily for a temporary work and was discharged as the temporary work was being closed and also as his work was not found satisfactory.

In the result, the present application fails. The applicant is not entitled to any relief. I pass my award accordingly.
